History: Kris was found as a 2 month old baby by a couple who lived in the woods. The only clue to her name was the blanket she was wrapped in, which had Kris_ at the bottom right corner. The rest of her name was torn off. As Kris grew up, she found she had unusual powers. Later on, around the age of 8, she finds these small baby creatures that her foster parents identify as Neosiams. They giver her a special backpack that seems to be bottomless. All but 2 of the pets are stored in her bag. The last 2, a baby Kacheek and a baby Korbat, take on the appearance of stuff animals that Kris carries. During the summer, after she turns 9, her parents send her on a trip with an old friend named Max Tennyson and his grandchildren.

>In case you're all wondering, yes I'm putting Neopets in here. I figured they could have come from an alien planet. Also, the pets appearances will only be Plushie and Baby form. Please don't criticize me too much. Also, the reason I haven't been updating is because my mom has been sick and I've tried to help her the best I can.
